Native Daughters Plan Food Sale

Do you like delicious home-cooked foods?

If you do, (and who doesn't?), you'll want to attend the big food sale sponsored by El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, N. D. G. W., Friday and Saturday, September 19 and 20. The sale will be held at Milo's market, 6315 Mission street.

The committee, headed by Irma Zerga, announces that cakes, pies, tamale pies, salads and other home-cooked foods will be featured. All the ladies of the organization are helping with the preparation of the tempting foods. Other committee members are Adele Wood, Frieda Schade, and Elloise Schillig.

President of El Carmelo parlor, Evelyn Bega, today urged everyone to attend the sale. Proceeds from the event will be used for the parlor and the drum corps.

Undaunted Courage!

Pat Hogan of Westwood, Calif., and Muriel Dwyer of Santa Cruz, went to Reno, Nev., to be married. Pat, after getting the license, was knocked down by an auto and his leg was fractured. Undaunted, he had the leg set at a hospital, summoned a clergyman and the marriage was performed on schedule at the bedside.

No Log Cabins

Although most American illustrations picture them in log cabins, the late Harold R. Shurtleff, in the Log Cabin Myth, published by Harvard University Press, states that there were no log cabins in early New England or Virginia. They built frame houses.

Low Death Rate

The census bureau notes that the Netherlands had the lowest death rate of any country in the world—until the German invasion. The rate was 8.7 deaths to each 1,000 population. This compared with 11.5 for the United States in 1936.

Kaye's Smart Shop Opens Tomorrow

Three weeks ago a trim, charming young lady inspected an attractive new local store building and formally pronounced, "This is the place!"

The young lady was Miss Kaye Abrami and the location was 66 School street. Tomorrow will be the climax of an arduous program of installing fixtures, purchasing merchandise, arranging displays . . . . tomorrow Kaye's Smart Shop will hold its grand opening. All day there will be OPEN HOUSE festivities at 66 School street. (Yes, you're invited, and bring your lady friends or school chums along, too.)

Kaye Abrami was born locally and attended Thornton school. Next came Balboa high and following that a whirl of events which gave her a background in ladies' apparel that is unusual for a young woman of her age.

Start of her career was a jewelry and accessory counter in Woolworth's 5 and 10. From there she was promoted to the office and on into the purchasing department. Next came The Emporium with its thousands of discriminating customers. Here Miss Abrami spent much time selling in the lingerie department and studying the business. From there she went to Freda's Smart Shop in downtown San Francisco—and next, Kaye's own shop here in Daly City.

Silver Lining

War has a silver lining for 44,000 who were on relief last winter in St. John's, Newfoundland. Its great newsprint and its wood-pulp and mine-prop industries have been revived with the closing of the Baltic. Iron, lead, and zinc mines are again operating, while enlistments in the navy, army and civilian forestry corps have also helped to reduce unemployment.

Cleaning Establishment Moves Right In

Hardly before the final coats of paint were dry on the new store building constructed in the 7100 block on Mission street by J. F. Millett jr., the place was open for business.

Mrs. Doselina Scocca is operating a cleaning and dyeing establishment at the new address, 7146 Mission street. Mrs. Scocca is an experienced cleaner and dyer with several years background as an employee of one of San Francisco's leading cleaning establishments. Her husband, Peter Scocca, will soon open a liquor store in the northern duplex of the new store building.
